

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AEFS IS NOW LGSTX SERVICES, INC.

WILMINGTON, OH – February 2, 2011 – Today ABX Equipment and Facility Services, Inc. (AEFS) announced it is changing its name to LGSTX Services, Inc. LGSTX Services is making this change to better reflect the diverse business solutions it has to offer its customers. LGSTX Fuel Management, Inc. will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of LGSTX Services, Inc. There is no change in ownership, management or personnel arising from this change.

Over the last 30 years, LGSTX Services has strived to provide its customers with the very best services in aviation and facilities support services. LGSTX Services offers value driven, high quality solutions to a broad range of airline, airport and corporate clients across the United States.

“Our growth over the last couple of years has yielded a unique blend of services and the name change is a better reflection of the company we are today,” said Gary Stover, President of LGSTX Services, Inc. “This will continue to move our current brand of value and high quality forward.”

The new identity better encompasses expectations of its customers and the services LGSTX Services provides. The new logo will be introduced to the industry at the Aviation Industry Expo on Feb. 21 in Las Vegas.
